Purpose	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Promote social inclusion and independence. ● Work alongside people experiencing mental health difficulties using a person-centered approach to support them in achieving their goals. ● This post will work closely with our criminal justice partners, including prisons and courts, to deliver high quality services that support people whose offending is associated with mental health issues. The criminal justice team also supports clients to reduce substance use and offending behaviour, providing real opportunities for recovery and to reduce harm to communities and individuals.
Responsibilities Person Centred Service Delivery <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Provide a welcoming reception, offering information, advice and guidance to support an individual to access the right service (DHI, DHI on-line or other). ● Work in a way which enables clients and communities to access a wide range of support, so they may exit the service as early as possible and sustain positive change. ● Undertake assessments and develop person centred support plans in collaboration with those requiring support. Person Centred assessments and Support Plans are tailored for and driven by the client, recognising their resources, strengths, aspirations and needs. Assessments and plans look beyond the presenting 'problem' and support clients to progress toward goals and aspirations using all available resources (e.g. clients' support network, online help, DHI and external agencies, clubs, activities and services). ● Support people to move through the service using the support plan as a dynamic document for change and give feedback on progress. ● Monitor and document the progress of individual clients, maintaining accurate, up-to-date, and confidential records that provide essential data. ● Identify, address, advocate, and escalate issues with clients as appropriate. ● The worker will support a whole-system approach with criminal justice partners to engage clients in treatment and support their recovery. The role is embedded in the Criminal Justice community treatment service, which has a specific outreach and engagement remit to work across Prisons, Police, Liaison and Diversion Schemes, Courts and Probation. ● This role will hold a caseload of clients involved in the criminal justice system, specifically those sentenced to Mental Health Treatment Requirements in the Bristol and Bath courts and who reside in Bristol, South Gloucestershire or BANES. ● The MHTR intervention involves 12, 50 minute sessions across the Community Order as specified by the Court, where the individual meets with the Primary Care MHTR Practitioner overseen by the Clinical Lead. The timing of sessions within the Community Order will be determined in the Post Sentence Case Management Meeting, considering other requirements and their interdependencies. People and Performance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Participate fully in regular supervision, team meetings, appraisals and learning and development activities.
